

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Candidacy

Any person in agreement with our church's adopted statement of faith and church covenant may offer themselves in person as a candidate for membership in this church at any worship service in any of the following ways:

(1) Baptism: Upon a public profession of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior and a commitment of their life to him as Lord, a person may be received as a candidate for baptism. New Testament baptism symbolizes both a historical fact and a present experience. The historical fact is the death, burial and resurrection of Christ and the present experience is that of being saved by grace through faith. The present experience is the believer's death to sin, the burial of old life and resurrection to a new life in Christ. The mode of baptism is immersion in water. Baptism in itself has no saving power, however the believer submits to the ordinance of baptism as an act of obedience to their Lord and in doing this they show their willingness to follow their Lord's commands.

(2) Letter: A person may be received upon presentation of, or promise of, a letter of dismissal from another church—provided they have received Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord and have followed with baptism by immersion.

(3) Statement: A person may be received upon their statement of a prior conversion experience and baptism (as defined in Article I, Section I (1) above) when no letter is obtainable.

Section 2: Admission

(1) All such candidates who present themselves to the church at a worship service shall be received under the watchcare of the church and shall be presented for membership and voted on at the regular business meeting. Members shall be elected by a two-thirds majority vote.

(2) Any candidate for church membership who is physically unable to attend a worship service shall have the privilege of offering themselves for church membership by proxy.

Section 3: Termination

Membership shall be terminated by church action in any of the following ways: death, transfer of letter to another church, exclusion by action of this church, or upon request of the member.

Section 4: Discipline

We understand the basic purpose of discipline to be that of protecting and promoting the fellowship of this church. Redemption and Christian love, rather than punishment, shall be the guideline which governs the attitude of one member toward another. Church discipline may be pursued for denial of doctrines contained in our adopted statement of faith and/or failure to live by commitments made in our church covenant.

Should some serious condition exist which would cause a member or members to become a liability to the general welfare of the church, every reasonable measure will be taken by the pastor and deacons to resolve the problem. Finding that the welfare of the church will best be served by the exclusion of the member, the church may take this action by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting called for this purpose; and the church may proceed to declare the offender to be no longer in the membership of the church. All such proceedings shall be pervaded by a spirit of Christian kindness and forbearance.

Any person, who has been thus excluded may upon their request, be restored to membership by a vote of the church upon evidence of their repentance and reformation. Members shall be reinstated to full membership by a two-thirds majority vote.

ARTICLE II: CHURCH OFFICERS

Section 1: Pastor

The pastor is responsible for leading the church to function as a New Testament Church. In general, the duties of the pastor as spiritual leader shall be fourfold: as a preacher, to proclaim the Gospel; as over-seer, to superintend the work of the church; as pastor, to shepherd the flock; and as minister, to serve the people of the church and the community for Christ's sake. The pastor must meet the qualifications spelled out in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9.

A job description shall be prepared by the Personnel Committee defining more specifically the authority and responsibilities of the pastor.

A pastor shall be chosen and called by the church whenever a vacancy occurs. His election shall take place at a special business meeting called for that purpose, of which at least one week's notice shall have been given in a Sunday worship service and announced in the bulletin.

A Pastor Search Committee shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the church to seek out a suitable Pastor. The recommendation of this committee shall constitute a nomination. The Pastor Search Committee shall be a seven member committee consisting of at least three (3) ordained Deacons, two (2) women, and two (2) additional members, all of which should be responsible and perceptive persons who assume an active role in the church. The committee shall organize itself by appointing a Chair, Vice-Chair and Secretary.

The Pastor Search Committee shall bring to the consideration of the church only one name at a time. Election shall be by secret ballot, and requires an affirmative vote of three-fourths of those present.

The pastor, thus elected, shall serve until the relationship is terminated by his request or by the church's request. The pastor shall give a minimum of two (2) weeks notice at the time of his resignation before terminating his responsibilities as pastor. If termination is by the choice of the church, it shall be by three-fourths vote of those members present and voting, and with at least two (2) weeks notice to the pastor, whose salary shall be continued for two (2) weeks beyond the date of termination. Advance notice of such proposed action shall be given in writing to the resident membership at least two (2) weeks prior to church action. Action shall be taken at a regular business meeting.

Section 2: Vocational Staff and Employees

(1) Vocational Staff: This church shall call or employ such staff members as the church shall need. A job description shall be written by the Personnel Committee for all staff members. All staff members will be employed by church action.

(2) Other Employees: Secretaries, Custodians and other employees as deemed necessary by the church will not be considered Vocational Staff and will be employed, supervised, and terminated by the Personnel Committee in conjunction with the pastor.

Section 3: Deacons

There shall be six active deacons, serving a three-year term. Two of the six deacons will rotate off each year making it necessary to elect two deacons each year. The number of active deacons shall be determined by the church members present at any regular business meeting upon recommendation of the deacons and pastor. Their number will be increased in multiples of two, still allowing them to serve a three-year term, rotating off in equal number. Upon election the new deacons will start to serve their three-year term, effective October 1.

The nominations for deacon election will be done in the following manner. In the month of July the active deacon body will nominate men who are willing and qualified to serve as deacons. Any member of the church may submit a name for nomination to the deacon body, but all nominations must be completed, no later than August 1. All nominations will be held in strict confidence until the deacon body and the pastor conduct a review of all candidates for election. The period for review of candidates will be completed during the month of August. The first Sunday in September, a list of deacon candidates will be placed in the church bulletin. The second Sunday in September, an election will be held by secret ballot. The ballots will be counted by a counting committee composed of the Chair and Vice-Chair of the deacons and two other persons appointed by the Moderator at the preceding business meeting. The two deacons with the highest total percentage of votes will be elected. If two or less deacons are on the ballot they must receive a minimum of a three-fourths affirmative vote. After the votes are counted the ballots will be destroyed.

In the event that the church is unable to provide two qualified candidates for deacon, the deacons may recommend one or two of the men rotating off to come back on for another term. This recommendation must be affirmed by a congregational vote of the church at a regular business meeting. Deacons must receive a minimum of a three-fourths affirmative vote.

In the event of death, removal, or incapacity to serve, the deacons will submit to the church for congregational vote at a regular business meeting an ordained deacon presently not serving on the active list to fill out the remainder of such person's unexpired term. The deacon will be elected with a minimum of a three-fourths affirmative vote by those present.

There is no obligation to constitute as an active deacon a person who comes to the church from another church where he has served as a deacon.

A man must be 25 years of age to be considered for deacon.

A man must be an active member of this church for at least one year prior to July 1.

They must be men who have given evidence of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit; have the kind of capable wisdom which will enable them to perform their special task of deacon service as outlined in 1 Timothy 3:8-13 and Acts 6:1-7.

The person should be deeply committed to the programs of the church in worship, teaching, fellowship; and an exemplary steward of time, talents; and prayerfully supportive of the pastor, staff, and leadership of the church.

The deacons shall elect their officers and so organize themselves in such a manner to assist the pastor and to fulfill their ministry. They shall meet monthly or in a special meeting when called by the pastor, Chair or one-third of the deacons. The Secretary of deacons shall take minutes at each meeting. The Chair or Vice-Chair will bring recommendations to the church.
